

2021 Groups Scholars Student Application

Do I Qualify?

A recommendation from a Groups Scholars Recommender is the only way to gain opportunity to apply to the Groups Scholars Program. You must:

1. Be a resident of the state of Indiana (at least one of the applicant's parents or legal guardians must live in Indiana.) No exceptions.
2. Be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen (have a green card)
3. Meet the Minimum College Preparatory Courses: Refer to IUB (Academic Preparation)

Minimum College Preparatory Courses

8 credits (semesters) of English – such as literature, grammar, composition and journalism.

7 credits (semesters) of mathematics – including 4 semesters of algebra and 2 semesters of geometry (or an equivalent 6 semesters of integrated algebra and geometry) AND 1 semester of calculus, pre-calculus or trigonometry. Contact Jana Cox if you have questions about this requirement.

6 credits (semesters) of social science – including 2 semesters of U.S. history, 2 semesters of world history/civilization/geography, and 2 additional semesters in government, economics, sociology, history, or similar topics.

6 credits (semesters) of science – including at least 4 semesters of laboratory sciences (biology, chemistry, or physics)

4 credits (semesters) of world languages

3 or more credits (semesters) of additional College Preparatory Courses – additional mathematics courses are recommended for students intending to pursue a science degree and additional world language courses are recommended for all students.

Students should schedule and complete at least 3 academic courses during the second semester of senior year. (Mid-year graduation is not recommended.)

NOTE: Application does NOT guarantee admission.

A high EFC as determined by the FAFSA reduce the amount of the Groups Grant you receive and/or admission to this program may be rescinded.

NOTE: There are housing options for transgendered individuals at IUB. Information for roommate selection for the SEP will be provided to students via email after attending the Cream & Crimson Welcome at IUB.

Groups Scholars Program Benefits

The Groups Scholars Program is a proven program of information, support, and guidance that helps provide students with the academic and emotional support necessary to excel in the classroom and beyond.

Supporting Students

Academic Advising

Professional staff advisors work with students as they select their major, design class schedule, and enroll in courses they need to graduate.

Tutoring

Groups Scholars receive free academic tutoring in almost every listed field of study.

Group Grant

Groups Scholars are eligible for need-based grants for up to four years. See financial aid information under Program Benefits for Groups.

Programs & Opportunities

SEP

Summer Experience Program—seven weeks of college courses and transition period to university life. Scholars live in residence halls, are introduced to resources, and become familiar with the campus.

Adaptive Technology

Through collaborative efforts with Adaptive Technology & Accessibility Center, Groups Scholars have access to technologies like Kurzweil 3000 and Inspiration.

Overseas Study

Advice and support for Groups Scholars who desire to spend a summer, a semester, or a year participating in an approved IU Overseas study opportunity.

Leadership Initiative

Students gain leadership skills to help them in all aspects of life, including self-awareness, time management, and critical thinking.

“Groups Five”

XAE

IU chapter of Chi Alpha Epsilon National Honor Society. XAE recognizes outstanding academic achievement & strong leadership skills for first-generation students who serve as role models.

Ambassadors

Outstanding junior and senior Groups Scholars are invited into the program. They assist staff with programs, presentations, and serve as guides to incoming Groups Scholars.

Students helping students is a key philosophy behind the Groups Scholars Program. These scholars are trained to help with incoming class registration and other activities.

STEM

Prepares and advances students as research scientists, physicians, and professionals in health fields via Foundations of Research curriculum & practical lab or research experiences.

Application Procedures

1. You must first apply to Indiana University Bloomington (IUB) as any other student would at admissions.indiana.edu. You must have a complete application by November 1. You will receive notification from the Office of Admissions as any other student. This means that some students may receive denial notifications from the IUB Office of Admissions. Even if you are denied through the IUB Office of Admissions, you may still be conditionally admitted through the Groups Scholars Program.
2. Eligible students must then complete a Groups Scholars Program Application online using link below. Please make sure you have all the information you will need before beginning the online application. It is not a savable application. We have provided a worksheet in the next few pages to assist you in completing your application.
3. Submit documents required to the IU Office of Admissions. Do not send anything to Groups office unless we request it.

A Groups Scholars COMPLETED APPLICATION includes these components:

- IUB Application (online) No later than Nov 1
- Groups Scholars Application (online) No Later than Nov 1
- All required documents to IU Bloomington

- Groups Application Link: YOU MUST SEE YOUR RECOMMENDER FOR ON LINE LINK TO APPLICATION. WE will not accept this worksheet as your application.

All elements of your application must be received by November 1, 2020

How to Apply for Financial Aid

You must complete your 2021-2022 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for aid. We recommend that you complete this by no later than November 1. Be sure to include IU Bloomington's school code: 001809. The 2021-2021 FAFSA will be available on October 1, 2020 and is due by April 15, 2021.

Prepare to File Your FAFSA

When you file your FAFSA, you'll be asked to include your prior year's income tax and W-2 information. This information is used by the Department of Education to calculate your Expected Family Contribution (EFC).

If you're considered a dependent student by the FAFSA, you'll be required to include your parents' tax information.

Here are the documents and information you'll want to have ready before you file your FAFSA:

- Federal tax information or tax returns for you, your spouse (if you're married), and your parents (if applicable). This includes W-2 information.
- In the income section of the FAFSA you should retrieve data from the IRS directly into your FAFSA application. This will streamline and expedite the processing of your application. If you do not, the IU Office of Financial Aid will eventually request for you to submit a copy of your Tax Transcript from the IRS.
- Your Social Security Number and your parents' Social Security Numbers if you are providing parent information
- Your Alien Registration Number if you are not a U.S citizen.
- Other information you and your parents (if applicable) may need to provide: checking, savings, investments, and business assets.
- The IUB school code is 001809. Be sure to enter this so that your FAFSA information gets sent to IUB.

The amount of the Groups Grant will vary from student to student and will be determined based on the information submitted on the FAFSA.

If you have additional questions about financial aid, please visit IU's Office of Student Financial Assistance website at studentcentral.indiana.edu/financial-aid/ or the Federal Student Aid website at studentaid.ed.gov.

To speak to the financial aid staff directly, you may go to Student Central located on Union Street if you are in Bloomington, or call 812-855-6500.

You do NOT need to apply for Summer Aid or complete the 2020-2021 FAFSA.
